

MSA Intel: Situational Awareness and Violent Flashpoints

Over the past several months, the country has seen the chaotic events of 2020 fuel widespread instability and violence. More than 10,000 demonstrations have already occurred across the United States, with hundreds turning violent and no end in sight. From Portland to Rochester, city landscapes have transformed overnight. As instability and violence continue to percolate, flash points can happen in your city at a moment's notice.

Triggers:

COVID-19 • Economic Fallout • Anti-Police Protests & Riots • Election Uncertainty

Cities:

Minneapolis • Atlanta • Denver • Louisville • Portland • Seattle • Kenosha • Rochester

Violence:

Occupied Zones • Active Shooters • Vehicle Rammings • Molotov Cocktails • Projectiles • IEDs
Arson • Looting • Vandalism

Political Violence & Demonstrations: May - August 2020
Source: ACLEDData.com

MSA's Intelligence Program offers around-the-clock reporting and analysis on unfolding events directly impacting your business operations and security environment. Intel Analysts monitor open source social media and track breaking news to provide clients with timely analysis on all-hazard threats to clients' immediate and ongoing operations. Their reporting offers maximum situational awareness to inform your security program in this high threat environment.

LEARN MORE